DUE: January 20th

 FAITH FORMATION

This Sunday, the first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah is about God's servant. The passage says that the servant was called from the womb. This means God had a plan for him before he was even born. We, too, were all chosen by God before birth to do his work. That means that our lives have a meaning from the very beginning. Each of us were known and loved by God before we were even born. We are all a part of God's plan.

Being a part of God's plan doesn't mean that our lives won't have difficulties. Even the prophets struggled at times. Try offering it all up to God. Whether you are busy, in pain, or confused, start your day with "Jesus, I trust in you. Use me today." Even small actions done in love can be a part of God's plan.

God Bless! BWM, DRE

Here's a daily prayer for discerning God's will for you.

Lord Jesus,
 You know my heart, my struggles, my desires.
 Speak to me clearly, quietly.
 Let me not be led by fear, pride, or confusing.
 Show me what You want me to do today
 And give me the grace to do it.
 Amen.

thaisprings.info Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

At the beginning of the Ordinary Season, we are introduced to Jesus as the Lamb of God who came to die for the atonement of our sins. John the Baptist's declaration of Jesus as the Lamb of God would have evoked several images in the minds of his Jewish listeners:

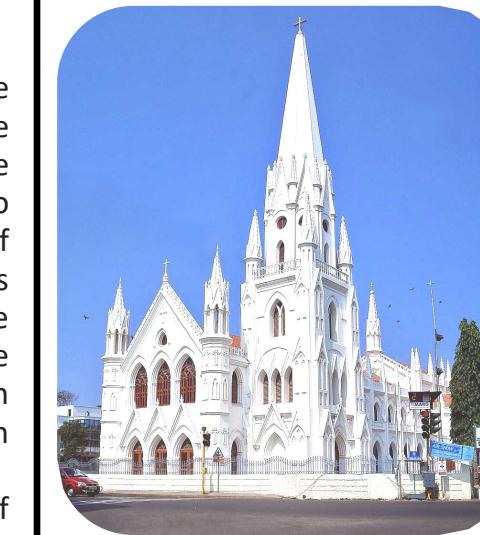

1. On the Day of Atonement, the high priest symbolically placed all the sins of the people upon a lamb, which was then sent into the wilderness to die (Lev 16:20–22).
2. Every morning and evening, a lamb was sacrificed in the Temple to atone for the sins of the people (Ex 29:38–42).
3. The blood of the lambs saved the firstborn of the Israelites in Egypt, reminding them of the Passover Lamb whose sacrifice marked their liberation (Ex 12:11).

Just as the blood of the original Paschal Lamb delivered the Israelites from the destroying angel, so too does Jesus bring liberation to all humanity through His intercession and sacrifice.

St. Thomas Cathedral Basilica Chennai, India

This magnificent church was built over the tomb of St Thomas the Apostle, who was the first to introduce Christianity in India.

Father Thainese, with Father Jared Suire and Father Clint Trahan from the Diocese of Lafayette, celebrated Mass at the tomb of St. Thomas the Apostle on Wed., Jan. 7th.

Our Lady of Light Shrine Chennai, India

Built in 1516, Our Lady of Light Shrine is one of the oldest churches in Chennai. Legends state that in 1500 A.D. eight Franciscan Portuguese priests on their way to India from Lisbon got lost in the sea. They worshipped Virgin Mary for help and were guided by a bright light that led them safely to a forest area.

Father Pedro da Atougia, the Franciscan friar then built a church in honor of Mother Mary at the same spot where the miraculous light led the priests to safety and called it as Nossa Senhora Da Luz. Nossa Senhora means Our Lady and Luz means light. Henceforth it was renowned as the Church of Our Lady of Light.

St. Thomas brought this picture of Our Lady in 54 A.D.
