The Liturgy of the Word - Part 1

This is the major part of the Mass between the Opening Prayer and the preparation of the Gifts during which the Word of God is proclaimed, responded to, explained, and accepted. The Scriptures are God's word spoken to us today. Through the Liturgy of the Word, God speaks to us personally and is fully present to us. We must open ourselves to God's presence by turning a listening ear and heart to the Sacred Scripture proclaimed during the liturgy.

- First Reading:

On Sundays and solemnities during most of the year, this reading is taken from the Old Testament. During the Easter season, it is taken from the Acts of the Apostles which tells the story of the Church in its earliest days. Read by a lector from the Lectionary at the Ambo, this First Reading and the Gospel have been selected in coordination with each other so that there will be thematic unity.

- Responsorial Psalm:

The psalm is a response to the First Reading to help us focus on the theme of the liturgy. It may be sung or recited. Each psalm is a prayer which reflects a wide range of human needs and emotions and helps us meditate on the Word of God.

- Second Reading:

This reading, also read by a lector, is always from the epistles in the New Testament. Epistles are "letters" written by the apostles to churches or individuals that usually start with a personal greeting, identifying the intended recipient, followed by the topic for discussion that mixes admonitions to turn away from sinful things with instructions on how to live. It concludes with business matters—messages or things the writer needs the recipients to do—and a final farewell that may include a prayer or blessing for the recipients.

G. K. Chesterton once said that the really great lesson of the story of "Beauty and the Beast" is that a thing must be loved before it is loveable. A person must be loved before that person can be lovable. Some of the most unlovely people I have known got that way because they thought that nobody loved them. The fact of the matter is that unless and until we feel ourselves loved, we cannot love.

That's not only a principle of theology but of psychology and sociology as well. Just as abused children grow up to abuse their children, loved children grow up to love their children. Loved persons are able to love. Unloved persons are not. Christianity says something startling. It says that God loves and accepts us "just as we are." Therefore, we can love and accept ourselves and in so doing, love and accept others. That is what Jesus commands us to do in today's Gospel by challenging us to love others as he has loved us.

St. Bernadette will be hosting a Spiritual Talk by Catholic Radio presenter, Mr. Paul McClean. He will be speaking about the spiritual importance of Louisiana, especially as it relates to the Most Holy Eucharist and Adoration.

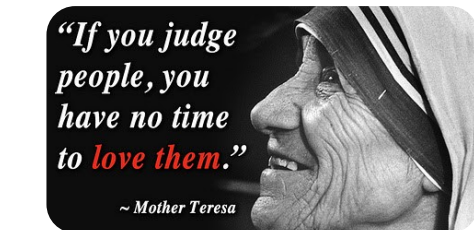

Memorare
Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

This week's quote on the Holy Eucharist

"I find consolation in the one and only friend who will never leave me, that is, our Divine Savior in the Holy Eucharist. Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the most tender of friends with souls who seek to please him."
~ St. Damien de Veustor of Molokai

FAITH FORMATION

As our year's Faith Formation program comes to an end, I want to take the time to thank those who have graciously volunteered, diligently labored, exercised patience, and modeled Christian love to share the Catholic faith with our children, teens, and families in our parish. I thank God for the gifts each volunteer has shared in our Faith Formation program this year. Our children, their families, and our entire faith community appreciate all that you have done to bring our youth to a deeper understanding of the Church's teachings and our Lord's blessings. God Bless you all! I'm already looking forward to next year!
 Becky Wiggins, DRE

There is a special hospital in London for those whom other hospitals consider a lost cause. It is a hospital for those who are diagnosed as "terminal." Most people would consider such a hospital to be a very sad place, but it is not. Actually, it is a hospital filled with hope and a lot of life. The emphasis in this London hospital is on life and not on death. The truth is that several of the patients have seen remissions in the disease process instead of death. A great deal of the credit is given to the way the facility is run.

The basic philosophy is different from most other hospitals. In this program the patients are expected to give themselves away in service to the other patients. Each patient is given another patient for whom to care. So, for example, a person who is unable to walk might be given the task of reading to another who is blind. The blind person would then push the wheelchair of the one who could not walk but who gives directions on where to push the chair.

Is this not the new commandment to which Jesus referred? He calls us to be disciples who love one another. We are the ones who are healed and strengthened when we learn how to give and how to love.
